

After seven successful years, CHABS is now overwhelming London for the eleventh time to help raise funds for the Cancel Cancer Africa UK Charity. This edition themed 'Defining your Dreams' will feature the launch of the Harvey Price gold range collection with Born Anxious and the Ronnie J Collections shoe and dream clothing range.

On the 12th of March, fifteen (15) creatives will be introducing their new collections for 2022, at the London Hilton Hotel Canary Wharf. Cancel Cancer Africa is thrilled to be bringing together an array of local and international designers for this two-segment engagement at 11 am and 6 pm respectively.

We are very pleased about this latest collaboration with Born Anxious (UK), DGV Styles (Nigeria), Athea Couture (Milan), Ethnicroyals (UK), Dear Princess (Philippines), Girls 4 Girls (Poland), Vermelho Rose (UK), Nana Noo Nah (UK), Beads for Mama (Switzerland), Anthi G (UK), Just Me Jolina (UK), Korn Taylor (Milan) and Royal Vogue (UK).

CHABS London stands for 'Creative Health and Beauty', built around love for one another, bravery to follow your dreams and contemporary innovations – an immaculate harmony of fashion and beauty.

Whilst planning this year's theme, we focused on challenging ourselves to reach the best of our creative side. We believe that must all push ourselves to new level in 2022, to allow our passion to unfold, the fears disappear and the ability to dream take over us all.

Twice a year, CHABS with over one hundred volunteers, selflessly work hard to raise funds for Cancel Cancer Africa. These funds help us deliver our free local health care services as well as fund the building of the new community health centre in rural Africa.

All showcased outfits are available for purchase directly or online at the designer's online pages. CHABS London will be collaborating with various amazing makeup and hairstylist to help deliver a stunning show.

CHABS London has grown to become a very popular platform and has already established itself in London, Italy and Switzerland as a platform with hard-working principles of making dreams come true.

The secret of our success is in giving people opportunities to showcase their gifts while driving to be the best we can be always. Over the years we have seen many talented creatives grow and this makes us very proud. Consequently, this season, we have an amazing collection of creatives that have challenged themselves to lift the lid off the march 12th event. It's going to be electric.

Our collaboration with fifteen amazing designers is a perfect symbiosis. They have an exceptionally multifarious and high-quality range of garments; therefore, we can take full benefit of it.

The CCA Team headed by Ronnie Jacobs is looking forward to welcoming you to come be part of this amazing experience while supporting Cancel cancer Africa.

Together, there is nothing that we cannot achieve.
