Small steps make big wins.

Wake up every day with a baby step mentality. Take small steps, create small wins. Find someone with a like mind mentality and push each other. Together, there is nothing that you cannot achieve.

The accumulation of your small steps brings the big

Defining a Dream

You reproduce what you give out.

So many people have supported me in my dream realization. I am speechless at the level of commitment and dedication shown by everyone around me. I whole heartily appreciate you all. This is a true example of reproducing what you are.

Everyone is never going to love you.

STOP ENVY
STOP BULLYING
STOP HATE
STOP

There would be more things to stop.
But one thing is certain: envy, bullying and hatred in the fashion world (and otherwise in the normal world) are totally out of place.

In my view, envious people, bullies and haters are pitiable people who need professional help - or legal action.

I've been a fashion photographer for over thirty years. Every day with honest people is a positive day for me. A genuine laugh from a model is priceless.

Let's make a better world
